

Contents

	Page
Editorial	2
Feature Articles
Making Sense of What People Do: Historical Perspectives Ann Wilcock	4
Workers Without Work: Injured Workers and Well-being Sharon Dale Stone	7
Occupation Disrupted: Impacts, Challenges, and Coping Strategies For Farmers with Disabilities Laurie Molyneaux-Smith, Elizabeth Townsend & Judith R. Guernsey	14
Occupational Responses to Mid-life and Aging in Women with Disabilities Wendy Pentland, Jan Walker, Patricia Minnes, Mary Tremblay, Brenda Brouwer & Maria Gould	21
Occupied with Ponds: Exploring the Meaning, Bewaring the Loss for Kids and Communities of Nature's Small Spaces Patricia M. Manuel	31
Enhancing Occupational Opportunities in Communities: Politics' Third Way and the Concept of the Enabling State Gail Elizabeth Whiteford	40
Storymaking and Storytelling: Making Sense of Living with Multiple Sclerosis Valerie Wright-St Clair	46
Storied Approaches to Understanding Occupation Matthew Molineux & Wendy Rickard	52
Making Sense of What People Do: A Sociological Perspective Dorothy Smith	61

